ROMANS POETIQUES, 2

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 66 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)45436065 Subject: Environmental protection -- United States -- Finance. Excerpt: . . . ged that it is required-- using its words--required to promulgate MACT standards for all 174 source categories by the year 2000. Third, I must admit that I will be interested in learning if there is any substance behind EPAs recently announced legislative principles and MTBE and the reformulated gasoline program. At barely a half page in length, the March 20 principles are not a serious effort to address problems in the RFG Program. In fact, in testimony before the committee and in subsequent staff briefings, EPA could not answer even the most basic questions about what the Agency supports or does not support. EPA cannot claim to be working with Congress when it cannot explain in any detail what it is proposing. Fourth, I remain concerned about safe drinking water research. Last October, the Subcommittee on Health and Environment held a hearing to examine the adequacy of State drinking water research programs. The fiscal year 2001 budget claims a modest increase in such funding. However, I remain concerned that such spending may still be woefully short of the needs previously identified by EPA. I remain concerned that this matter is just not a priority for the administration. As a final matter of interest, I am also determined honestly to hold EPA accountable to local communities in the Superfund clean-up process. To address that concern, we must assure continued funding for the Office of the National Hazardous Waste and Superfund ombudsman. I have experienced firsthand the important work of the ombudsman in connection with the Stouffer Chemical Superfund site located in my district--and I might add, in my community-- of Tarpon Springs,...
