Reviews

This pdf will not be simple to start on reading through but extremely enjoyable to see. I have read and i also am sure that i will planning to read through again once more in the foreseeable future. You wont really feel monotony at whenever you want of the time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you request me).

William Deans, who, as reported in last issue, has been appointed to China, was ordained to the holy ministry at Wilton, Hawick. The Rev. J. Rudge Wilson, M.A., of Wilton, presided; there was a large attendance of the ministers of the Presbytery, and the church was crowded in every part The Convener of the Foreign Mission Committee addressed the young missionary and the people. Mr. Deans is highly recommended, and is believed to be a man who will be a great strength to the Mission. He has had considerable experience in Home Mission work under the Rev. James Anderson of Old Kirk parish, Edinburgh. God willing, he sails on 25th January, before this reaches the reader. The Committee hope to send out also a medical missionary before the end of this year. A work of grace appears to have begun among the scholars at Ichang. Much faithful sowing has been done by the Church of Scotland s China missionaries. Prayer is asked that the time of reaping largely may soon come. HOME MISSION. BENBECULA To the west of Scotland is situated what is known as the Long Island, or Outer Hebrides, a group of islands extending in length to about 100 miles. These remote islands were until recent years almost inaccessible, and it is recorded that in one of them prayers were offered for George III. for eighteen months after his death. The Long Island is...
