Yes: and I received photographs from other insurgent officers. Here is a photograph of another insurgent officer who commanded a column. He went away out of his way to surrender to our station, when he had been ordered to proceed to Jaro, for the reason that he believed the officers and troops in my district were very, very fair and always treated his troops with kindness. All these officers called on us later and thanked us for different kindnesses we had shown their men. Like Fathers To Children. By Senator Beveridge: Q. On that point. Captain, what was the general and ordinary course of conduct of the American officers and soldiers toward the people themselves who were not prisoners, and the people peaceably at work in their fields and homes, as to kindness and consideration? A. More like farther and children: we always treated them with extreme kindness. Q. And the soldier? A. And the soldiers the same way. Q. What orders did the soldiers have as to their treatment of the people? A. To treat them exactly as they would citizens or natives at home. If a peaceable native was interfered with in his occupation in any way the case was investigated and the soldier who offended was put in the guardhouse: he was punished. Q. Speaking of native prisoners, what was the treatment the prisoners you observed received at the hands of the American officers and men? A. Exactly the same treatment that any prisoners would receive. They received, for instance, the same food that our soldiers received. Q. If...
