God Only Knows: Piecing Together the Divine Puzzle

By Herb Gruning

Blue Dolphin Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Also by Herb Gruning: God and the New Metaphysics What can we know about God? God only knows. Is there anything that can give us a glimpse into the nature of God and the world God is allegedly responsible for? Does science help? Can the Bible assist us? Or is this something about which only philosophers can speculate? All our resources are of limited usefulness, but there is some information that investigation can yield. Of the many ways of thinking about God, three models of divinity stand out: the classical or traditional approach has the most seniority, but that alone does not give it security; the process scheme lies at the opposite extreme, but is too radical for some; and the newest option called open or free-will theism resides somewhere in the middle. You can't tell the players without a program, but with one, a selection might come easier. This book is that program. Endorsements This is a book for people who enjoy ideas. Big ones, like the nature of God, Man, the Universe and how they...
