Reviews

This ebook is worth acquiring. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. You will not truly feel monotony at at any time of your own time (that's what catalogues are for about if you ask me).

Was educated in schools of Utah and law department, University of Michigan. Was admitted to the bar in 1883, and has been in the active practice of his profession ever since except while a member of the United States Senate. He was State Senator in the first legislative assembly after the admission of Utah as a state in 1896, serving as chairman of the Judiciary Committee in that body. Was elected to the House of Representatives of the 57th Congress in 1900. After serving one term declined renomination; was elected United States Senator in 1905 and was reelected in 1911, his term of office expiring March 4th, 1917. Was chairman of the Federal Commission on Workman s Compensation in 1912-13. Was a member of the joint committee which prepared the existing Criminal Code and Judicial Code of the United States. (Served, among other Senate Committees, on Judiciary and Foreign Relations.) Received degree of Doctor of Laws from Columbia University, New York, and also from the University of Michigan. Was President of the American Bar Association for the year 1916-1917. Along with his other activities, Mr. Sutherland has found time to take an active part in the investigation and discussion of current problems affecting business. Price Standardization has been a much mooted subject and the reader will find herein a comprehensive discussion of the topic from all angles.
