Chapter 1 Introduction Health Affairs, who is responsible for establishing a health promotion program to be implemented in conjunction with the fitness and body fat program. DOD guidance states that each service must develop its own program according to its particular needs, placing primary emphasis on maintaining general health and physical fitness. Evaluation of individual fitness is an integral component of the program. Instruction 1308. 3 sets out a DOD number of key requirements for this evaluation, including the following: The services must use physical fitness tests of cardiovascular endurance, such as running a certain distance within a specified time limit, and muscular strength and endurance, such as sit-ups and push-ups. All servicemembers are to be tested regardless of age. Testing standards may be adjusted for age and must be adjusted for physiological differences between men and women. All servicemembers are to be formally tested for the record at least annually. Efficiency or fitness reports must include comments if the servicemember fails to meet physical...
