Accordingly the secretary wrote to each member, asking what evening would be most satisfactory. Can you suggest an-other question which would have been better for the secretary to have asked? IV. If a photographic plate be exposed to X-rays and then developed, black marks will be found upon it. Tm If upon developing a photographic plate you should find black marks upon it what would you conclude? Also if you should not find black marks upon it what would you conclude? V. If John agrees to join the football team provided Charles joins it, but Charles decides not to join it, what follows about John? If John joins, but Charles does not join, is John breaking his agreement? A multigraphed copy of these questions was put into the hands of each pupil. No instructions were given except the following which was placed at the head of the multigraphed copy: Please write answers to the following questions, first reading them all before you begin writing. Answer them in any order you-wish, numbering your answers to correspond to the numbers of the questions. This test was given under the charge of two English teachers in the school and particular care was taken to see that there was nothing said or done to indicate in the minds of the pupils that there was any connection between this test and their work in mathematics. No inquiries in...
