B-284297 and contract specifications that ensure food quality and nutrition, neither one specifically addresses the topic of ensuring the safety of food in procurement, with one exception - the First Choice manual directly addresses safety in the procurement of pre-cut fresh produce. Without recommending contract provisions to ensure the safety of such produce, the manual suggests visiting the vendors plant before contracting and suggests evaluating key areas, such as processing procedures and food safety measures. However, the manual contains no specific guidance for ensuring safety in the procurement of other types of food, such as meat, poultry, and dairy products or processed fruits, vegetables, and juices. Information is readily available from USDA that, if made available to school food authorities, could help ensure the safety of foods that they procure. Such information appears in ( 1 ) USDAs contract specifications for inspecting, storing, and transporting donated food products, as well as for addressing special safety concerns...
