WEBB, Dep. Sec. (Compared) T. Falconer. To Robert Clerk, Esq. Secretary to the Government. SIR, I AM favoured with your letter of the 27th ult. enclosing reports about the mulberry plantations in the northern circars, and am happy to observe that the Honourable the President in Council has anticipated my wishes, in ordering them to be extended. You You will therefore be pleased to acquaint the Honourable Board, that the directions I thought necessary to communicate on the business of the cultivation of raw silk, are in the hands of every one, having regularly transmitted copies of my printed letters to all the gentlemen on the coast. I enclose a copy of correspondence, with Mr. Fitzgerald, Assistant Surgeon, and Major Burr, regarding a desire expressed by the Rajah of Chintipilly for the inspection of the Honourable...
